General meetings (meetings of members)

- 20 The Trustees shall convene an annual general meeting in each year (but excluding the year in which the company is formed).

- 21 Not more than 15 months shall elapse between one annual general meeting and the next.
- 22 The business of each annual general meeting shall include:
- 22.1 a report by the chair on the activities of the company;
 - 22.2 consideration of the annual accounts of the company;
 - 22.3 the election/re-election of Trustees, as referred to in articles 49 to 51.
- 23 The Trustees may convene a general meeting at any time.
- 24 The Trustees must convene a general meeting if there is a valid requisition by members (under section 303 of the Act) or a requisition by a resigning auditor (under section 518 of the Act).

Notice of general meetings

- 25 Unless consent to short notice is given by the members in accordance with Section 307 of the Act, at least 14 clear days' notice must be given of any general meeting.
- 26 The reference to "clear days" in article 25 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice, the day after the notice is posted, (or, in the case of a notice sent in electronic form, the day after it was sent) and also the day of the meeting, should be excluded.
- 27 A notice calling a general meeting shall specify the time and place of the meeting; it shall
- 27.1 indicate the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting; and
 - 27.2 if a special resolution (see article 30) (or a resolution requiring special notice under the Act) is to be proposed, shall also state that fact, giving the exact terms of the resolution.
- 28 A notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify that the meeting is to be an annual general meeting.

Special resolutions and ordinary resolutions

- 30 For the purposes of these articles, a "special resolution" means a resolution passed by 75% or more of the votes cast on the resolution at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting and of the intention to propose the resolution has been given in accordance with articles 25 to 29; for the avoidance of doubt, the reference to a 75% majority relates only to the number of votes cast in favour of the resolution as compared with the number of votes cast against the resolution, and accordingly no account shall be taken of abstentions or members absent from the meeting.
- 31 For the purposes of these articles, an "ordinary resolution" means a resolution passed by majority vote (taking account only of those votes cast in favour as compared with those votes against, and (as applicable) the chairperson's casting vote), at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting has been given in accordance with articles 25 to 29.

Procedure at general meetings

- 32 No business shall be dealt with at any general meeting unless a quorum is present; the quorum for a general meeting shall be 6 persons entitled to vote, each being a member or a proxy for a member. In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other. Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them (including, without limitation, by means of video conference, telephone or similar communications equipment or any other suitable electronic means) and attending by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.
- 33 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which a general meeting was due to commence – or if, during a meeting, a quorum ceases to be present – the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be fixed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 34 The chair of the company shall (if present and willing to act as a chairperson) preside as chairperson of each general meeting; if the chair is not present and willing to act as chairperson within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to commence, the members present at the meeting shall elect from among themselves the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.
- 35 The chairperson of a general meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting to such time and place as the chairperson may determine.
- 36 Every member shall have one vote, which (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) may be given either personally or by proxy.

Proxies

- 37 A proxy need not be a member of the company.
- 38 A member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend the same meeting. A proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of a member shall have the same right as the member who appointed him/her to speak at the meeting.

Content of proxy notices

- 39
- 39.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which:
- (a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
 - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that member’s proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Trustees may determine; and
 - (d) is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

- 39.2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 39.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 39.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

Delivery of proxy notice

- 40.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person
- 40.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given. A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 40.3 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

Voting

- 41 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote.
- 42 A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded by the chairperson (or by at least two persons present in person at the meeting and entitled to vote, whether members or proxies for members); a poll may be demanded either before the show of hands takes place, or immediately after the result of the show of hands is declared. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if: (a) the poll has not yet been taken, and (b) the chairperson consents to the withdrawal.
- 43 If a poll is demanded, it shall be taken at the meeting and shall be conducted in such a manner as the chairperson may direct; the result of the poll shall be declared at the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Amendments to resolutions

- 44.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at said the general meeting not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairperson of the meeting may determine), and the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairperson, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- 44.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if the chairperson proposes the amendment at the said general meeting and the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

- 44.3 If the chairperson, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairperson's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

Written resolutions

- 45 A resolution in writing signed by members of the company who would be entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at a general meeting at which such resolution was to be proposed, or by their duly appointed attorneys or representatives, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting of the company duly convened and held, if the appropriate number of members (per article 30 re special resolutions and article 32 re ordinary resolutions) have signed the said written resolution. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more of the members or their duly appointed attorneys or representatives.

Number of Trustees

- 46 The minimum number of Trustees shall be 3 and the maximum number shall be 13. If at any time the number of Trustees fall below 3 the only power which the remaining Trustees may exercise shall be under article 50, the power to fill vacancies to bring the number of Trustees up to at least 3.

- 49 Trustees shall be subject to retirement by rotation, as follows. At the first annual general meeting following adoption of these articles and at every subsequent annual general meeting one-third of the said Trustees or, if their number is not three or an integral multiple of three, the number nearest to one-third, shall retire from office provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, if there is only one Trustee he shall not retire. The Trustees to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or re-appointment, but as between persons who became or were last re-appointed Trustees on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot. At each annual general meeting, any Trustee who has retired from office under this article shall then be eligible for re-election.

- 50 The Trustees may at any time appoint any member (providing he/she is willing to act) to be a Trustee. A Trustee so appointed shall hold office for a maximum period of three years annual general meeting at which time he/she shall retire in accordance with article 49. At each annual general meeting, any Trustee who has retired from office under this article shall then be eligible for re-election (under article 48).

Termination of office

- 51 A Trustee shall automatically vacate office if:
- 51.1 he/she ceases to be a Trustee through the operation of any provision of the Act or becomes prohibited by law from being a Trustee;

- 51.2 he/she becomes debarred under any statutory provision from being involved in the management or control of a charity;
- 51.3 he/she becomes incapable for medical reasons of fulfilling the duties of his/her office and such incapacity is expected to continue for a period of more than six months;

- 53 The Trustees shall elect from among themselves a chair and a treasurer, and such other office bearers (if any) as they consider appropriate.
- 54 All of the office bearers shall cease to hold office at the conclusion of each annual general meeting, but shall then be eligible for re-election.
- 55 A person elected to any office shall cease to hold that office if he/she ceases to be a Trustee, or if he/she resigns from that office by written notice to that effect.

- 59 For the purposes of the preceding article, a Trustee shall be deemed to have a personal interest in an arrangement if any partner or other close relative of his/hers or any firm of which he/she is a partner or any limited company of which he/she is a substantial shareholder or Trustee (or any other party who/which is deemed to be connected with him/her for the purposes of section 252 of the Act), has a personal interest in that arrangement.

- 60 Provided (a) he/she has declared his/her interest (b) he/she has not voted on the question of whether or not the company should enter into the relevant arrangement and (c) article 63 is complied with - a Trustee will not be debarred from entering into an arrangement with the company in which he/she has a personal interest (or is deemed to have a personal interest under article 60) and may retain any personal benefit which he/she gains from his/her participation in that arrangement.

Trustees' remuneration and expenses

- 61 No Trustee may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the company, and no Trustee may be given any remuneration by the company for carrying out his/her duties as a Trustee.
- 62 A Trustee may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of a trading subsidiary of the company.
- 63 Where a Trustee provides services to the company or might benefit from any remuneration paid to a connected party for such services, then:
- 63.1 the maximum amount of the remuneration must be specified in a written agreement and must be reasonable; and
 - 63.2 the Trustees must be satisfied that it would be in the interests of the company to enter into the arrangement (taking account of that maximum amount); and
 - 63.3 less than half of the Trustees must be receiving remuneration from the company (or benefit from remuneration of that nature).
- 64 The Trustees may be paid all travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the Trustees, general meetings, or meetings of committees, or otherwise in connection with the carrying-out of their duties.

In determining whether Trustees are participating in a Trustees' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Trustee is or how they communicate with each other (including, without limitation, by means of video conference, telephone or similar communications equipment or any other suitable electronic means) provided that all those participating in the meeting are able to communicate with all other participants. If all the Trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any one of them is.
- 69 If at any time the number of Trustees in office falls below the number fixed as the quorum, the remaining Trustee(s) may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.
- 70 Unless he/she is unwilling to do so, the chair of the company shall preside as chairperson at every Trustees' meeting at which he/she is present; if the chair is unwilling to act as chairperson or is not present within 15 minutes after the time when the meeting was due to commence, the Trustees present shall elect from among themselves the person who will act as chairperson of the meeting.
- 71 The Trustees may, at their discretion, allow any person whom they reasonably consider appropriate, to attend and speak at any meeting of the Trustees; for the avoidance of doubt, any such person who is invited to attend a Trustees' meeting shall not be entitled to vote.
- 72 A Trustee shall not vote at a Trustees' meeting (or at a meeting of a committee) on any resolution concerning a matter in which he/she has a personal interest which conflicts (or may conflict) with the interests of the company; he/she must withdraw from the meeting while an item of that nature is being dealt with.
- 73 For the purposes of article 71, a person shall be deemed to have a personal interest in a particular matter if any partner or other close relative of his/hers or any firm of which he/she is a partner or any limited company of which he/she is a substantial shareholder or Trustee, has a personal interest in that matter.
- 74 A Trustee shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he/she is not entitled to vote.
- 75 Subject always to article 62, the company may, by ordinary resolution, suspend or relax to any extent – either generally or in relation to any particular matter – the provisions of articles 71 to 73, provided that despite any such relaxation a Trustee can only attend and / or vote in relation to a matter in which they have a personal interest if they have declared said interest.

Delegation

- 76 The Trustees may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:
- 76.1 to such person or committee;
 - 76.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);
 - 76.3 to such an extent;
 - 76.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and
 - 76.5 on such terms and conditions;
- as they think fit.
- 77 If the Trustees so specify, any delegation of powers under article 76 may authorise further delegation of the Trustees' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 78 The Trustees may revoke any delegation in whole or in part, or alter its terms and conditions.
- 79 The rules of procedure for any sub-committee shall be as prescribed by the Trustees.

Operation of bank accounts

- 80 The signatures of two out of the signatories appointed by the Trustees shall be required in relation to all operations (other than lodgement of funds) on the bank and building society accounts held by the company; at least one out of the two signatures must be the signature of a Trustee.

Secretary

- 81 The company shall have no company secretary unless decided otherwise by the Trustees. If the Trustees appoint a company secretary subject to the provisions of the Act, the company secretary may be appointed by the Trustees for such term, at such remuneration (if any and, if the company secretary is a Trustee, subject to article 62), and upon such conditions, as they may think fit; the company secretary may be removed by them at any time.

Minutes

- 82 The Trustees shall ensure that minutes are made of all proceedings at general meetings, Trustees' meetings and meetings of committees; a minute of any meeting shall include the names of those present, and (as far as possible) shall be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.

Accounting records and annual accounts

- 83 The Trustees shall ensure that proper accounting records are maintained in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.
- 84 The Trustees shall prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements; if an audit is required under any statutory provisions or if they otherwise think fit, they shall ensure that an audit of such accounts is carried out by a qualified auditor.
- 85 No member shall (unless he/she is a Trustee) have any right of inspecting any accounting or other records, or any document of the company, except as conferred by statute or as authorised by the Trustees or as authorised by ordinary resolution of the company.

Notices / communications

86 Subject to the articles, any notice or anything sent or supplied by or to the company under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Act provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of the Act to be sent or supplied by or to the company (which includes sending the communication in writing or in electronic form).

87 Subject to article 88, any notice, document or other information shall be deemed served on or delivered to the intended recipient:

87.1 if properly addressed and delivered by hand, on signature of a delivery receipt or at the time the notice, document or other information is left at the address;

87.2 if properly addressed and sent by pre-paid first class post, recorded delivery or special delivery to an address in the United Kingdom, at 9.00 am on the second business day after posting;

87.3 if properly addressed and sent to the email address of the recipient and sent or supplied by email, one hour after the notice, document or information was sent or supplied;

87.4 if sent by fax and a transmission report was received confirming that the notice was successfully transmitted to the correct fax number, at the time of transmission;

87.5 if sent or supplied by means of a website, when the material is first made available on the website or (if later) when the recipient receives (or is deemed to have received) notice of the fact that the material is available on the website, provided that, if deemed receipt under the previous paragraphs of this article 87 would occur outside business hours (meaning 9.00 am to 5.30 pm Monday to Friday on a day that is not a public holiday in the place of deemed receipt), at 9.00 on the day when business next starts in the place of deemed receipt. For the purposes of this article, all references to time are to local time in the place of deemed receipt.

88 Subject to the articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a Trustee in connection with the taking of decisions by Trustees may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that Trustee has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being. A Trustee may agree with the company that notices or documents sent to that Trustee in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than 48 hours.

Provision for employees on cessation of business

89 The Trustees may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a Trustee or former Trustee or shadow Trustee) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company or that subsidiary.

Winding up

90 If on the winding-up of the company any property remains after satisfaction of all of the company's debts and liabilities, such property shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the company; that property shall instead be transferred to some other charitable body or bodies (whether incorporated or unincorporated) whose objects are similar (wholly or in part) to the objects of the company.

- 91 The body or bodies to which property is transferred under article 90 shall be determined by the members of the company at or before the time of dissolution or, failing such determination, by such court as may have jurisdiction at the time.
- 92 To the extent that effect cannot be given to the provisions of articles 90 and 91, the relevant property shall be applied to some other charitable object or objects.

Indemnity

- 93 Every Trustee or other officer or auditor of the company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the company against any loss or liability which he/she may sustain or incur in connection with the execution of the duties of his/her office; that may include, without prejudice to that generality, any liability incurred by him/her in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) in which judgement is given in his/her favour or in which he/she is acquitted or any liability in connection with an application in which relief is granted to him/her by the court from liability for negligence, default or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the company.
- 94 The indemnity contained in article 93 shall be subject to the provisions of the Act and is without prejudice to any other indemnity to which a Trustee may otherwise be entitled.
